THE LITTLE MAID AND THE LAWYER. A SONG.

BY JOHN G. BAXE.

THEY say, little maid, quoth lawyer Brown, I'm the eleverest man in all the town. Heigho !- says she,

What's that to me? But they say, little moid, quoth lawyer Brown, "utmost confidence." You're the prettiest girl in all the town ! Says she, If they do, What's that to you?

They say, little mald, quoth lawyer Brown, I'm the richest man in all the town. Heigho!-says she,

What's that to me? But they say, little maid, quoth lawyer Brown You cught to be dressed in a finer gown! Says she. If they do, What's that to you?

They say, little maid, quoth lawyer Brown, That Jonny Hodge is an awkward clown. Helgho !- says she. What's that to me?

But they say, little maid, the lawyer sald, That you and Jonny are going to wed! Saya she, If we do. What's that to you?
